Bermuda Gymnastics Association are offering a Mid-Term Camp from Monday, October 22nd until Friday, October 26th.

Children between the ages of 4 and 12 are invited to join for a Halloween-themed week, loaded with Tricks for Treat activities. In addition to their trampolines and foam pit, they are really excited to offer Parkour Afternoons. Parkour is a training discipline using movement that developed from military obstacle course training, and everyday, campers will get new obstacle challenges based on the programming or dynamics of Parkour.

The cost is $305 per week for full days, from 9am until 4pm. There's also the option to book half days only (from 9am to 12:30pm or 12:30pm to 4pm) for $205 for per week.

Early drop off is at 8:30 am and late pick up is at 5:30pm. For more information, or to register, contact 295-0589 or visit www.BermudaGymnastics.bm.

Lotus is offering a workshop to help you gain a better understanding of women's hormonal health and how to raise your vibration and energy levels at home and in the workplace at Women's Hormonal Health, Childbirth & Workplace Wellness d TERRA Essential Oil Make & Take Evening on Tuesday, October 23rd.

From 6pm until 8pm at Lotus on Victoria Street, you will learn how to balance your hormones holistically and naturally and destress so you can achieve a better work/life equilibrium. Discover how essential oils are an incredible way to improve your everyday life and comfort preparing for or after having a baby.

The workshop will be led by Isabelle Weber, a qualified Aromatherapist and doTERRA Wellness Advocate, Women's Wellness Practitioner & Child Adolescent and Family Therapist, who will talk about what essential oils are, how to use them and their many benefits to reducing stress and addressing emotional wellbeing. Isabelle will introduce you to a daily destress practice that includes use of essential oils, movement and mindfulness meditation. You can incorporate this practice into your daily routine at home to help with increasing your hormonal well-being.

At the end of the class, participants will have the opportunity to make their own hormonal health essential oil blend to help you attend to an area of concern, and take home with you. You are asked to wear comfortable clothing. Refreshments will be served.

The cost for the class is $15.

For more information, or to book your place, contact Lotus on 296-5900 or info@lotusbermuda.com, or Isabelle on 703-3408 or isabelle.weberbda@gmail.com.

The Yoga Centre is offering a 6-Week Beginners Yoga Course starting on Thursday, October 25th.

The class meets weekly at their premises on Victoria Street, from 5:30pm until 7pm, and is geared to those new to yoga and/or those wishing to revive their practice and develop a regular routine.

The course provides step by step instruction into the practice of yoga where students gain strength and flexibility, confidence in learning how to do the poses correctly and breathing practices to calm the mind and deepen the asana experience; as well as Deep Relaxation to relieve stress and foster healthy sleep. The instructor is an E-RYT 500 Yoga Alliance teacher, teachers' trainer and YACEP provider as well as a yoga therapist, hence she is equip to work with most student abilities and challenges while ensuring safety first. The cost is $150.

For more information, or to register, contact 295-7525, yogacentrebermuda@gmail.com or yogaontherock@logic.bm.

Lotus is offering a fun, relaxed and informative evening workshop, to help people gain a better understanding of the benefits of using essential oils for health and healing at Let's Talk about Cellular Health: d TERRA Essential Oils & Supplements Make & Take Evening on Thursday, October 25th.

From 6pm until 8pm at Lotus on Victoria Street, Isabelle Weber, a qualified Aromatherapist, doTERRA Wellness Advocate and Women's Wellness Practitioner, will talk about Cellular Health and the top essential oils for treatment, how to use them and the many advantages you will gain from them – not only to reduce your stress, but also improve your lifestyle and emotional wellbeing. At the end of the class, participants will have the opportunity to make their own doTERRA essential oil blend to help you attend to an area of concern, and take home with you.

This special event is being held in honour of October Breast Cancer Awareness Month, to educate and support those who have been affected by cancer. It will feature doTERRA's top essential preventive oils and their latest ground-breaking research.

You are asked to wear pink comfortable clothing. Refreshments will be served.

The cost is $20 for the class and Lotus will only accept cash payments on the night.

For more information, or to book in advance, contact Lotus on 296-5900 or info@lotusbermuda.com, or Isabelle on 703-3408 or isabelle.weberbda@gmail.com.

The Bermuda National Gallery's Art of Music series is thrilled to present a fundraising event, featuring internationally acclaimed violinist Michael Foyle, with opening performances by Bermudian violin duo "ViolinSisters" Naphisa and Sari Smith on Saturday, October 27th

British talent Michael Foyle won The Netherlands Violin Competition 2016. His acclaimed performance of Szymanowski's Violin Concerto No.1 with the Rotterdam Philharmonic Orchestra led to an immediate invitation to give his debut recital at The Concertgebouw, Amsterdam. In the past two seasons, Michael has made his recital debuts in Wigmore Hall, Southbank Centre, St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Bridgewater Hall, Usher Hall and Buckingham Palace. Abroad, he has performed Brahms' Violin Concerto in Great Hall of the Moscow Conservatory and has given recitals for the New York Chamber Music Festival, Cervantino Festival in Mexico and Evgeny Mravinsky Festival in Tallinn and St. Petersburg. Michael won the BBC Young Musician of the Year Tabor Award 2008 and Royal Overseas League String Competition 2013.

For this event, Michael's repertoire will include: Bach's Sonata for solo violin in A Minor, E. Ysaÿe's Sonata No. 1 in G minor, and N. Paganini's Two Caprices.

The evening of music starts with a reception at 5:30pm, followed by the concert at 6pm in the Bermuda National Gallery at City Hall.

Tickets are $40 for BNG members and $50 for non-members, and can be purchased online at www.BDAtxix.bm.

For more information, contact 295-9428 or membership@bng.bm.

Promising Bermuda's best Halloween costume party, Veuve Clicquot Yelloween will take place on Saturday, October 27th, rain or shine.

The cost is $150 plus 17% gratuities on tickets are available online from www.Ptxix.bm/Yelloween.

For more information, contact 238-6968 or michael.maguire@fairmont.com.

For one night only! You can come see your boy Bootsie as you've never seen him before, bringing his original character to stage in his first one man play, Broken Promises featuring Papa Sporty on Saturday, October 27th.

This hilarious yet thought provoking play is from 8pm until 10pm at the Southampton Princess.

Tickets are $50 and available from www.Bdatix.bm or 27th Century Boutique.

For more information, contact 531-1279.

Please note there will be no event in October, however The Grateful Bread monthly feeding program will continue with two events next month on Thursdays; November 1st and November 29th.

The event will start and end promptly, at Astwood Hall opposite of HSBC on Church Street, from 6pm until 7.30pm or earlier if all food is gone. All in need are welcome, but please no entry on church grounds until after 5pm. Food will be restricted to one plate per person present, unless there is food left over at end of the line, and no filling of personal containers will be allowed until everyone has had a plate of food. There will also be free giveaways and donations of clothes, household items, toiletries and more.

This event will continue monthly until further notice. The date for the December event is yet to be advised.

For more information, contact Juliana or Suzi on 296-8444, jsnelling@canterburylaw.bm or souterbridge@canterburylaw.bm.
